

Test Date: Wednesday, October 21

Parent Signature: _____

This worksheet is designed to help you choose strategies to help you study the information you need to know for the test on early humans.

1. Know and understand the definitions for words associated with the study of time and for the experts who study ancient history.

Materials you need: "Vocabulary Relating to Time" and "Ancient History-Experts Who Study the Past" worksheets.

How I will study this information:

2. Know when the SIX different hominid groups lived on earth. Don't forget Ardi!

Materials you need: "Hominid Chart", chapter 2 in History Alive, and notes on Ardi.

How I will study this information:

3. Know adaptation or skills of each hominid group.

Materials you need: "Hominid Chart" & chapter 2 in History Alive

How I will study this information:

4. Know the dates of the Paleolithic Age, Ice Age, and the Neolithic Age.
Know how changes in climate affected plant and animal life, and human existence from the Ice Age to the time of first cities.

Materials you need: Chapter 3 in History Alive . "The Ice Age" article and worksheet, "The Thaw" article.

How I will study this information:

5. Know the 5 main changes in the way people lived as a result of farming. Know two important facts about each of those 5 changes.

Materials you need: Chapter 3 in History Alive, chart worksheet for chapter 3

How I will study this information:

6. Be able to describe some of the characteristics of a Neolithic town.

Materials you need: Article on Catalhoyuk and information from the website.

How I will study this information:
