

Cornell Notes for “Flowers for Algernon”

Progress Report and Date (from the story)	The following ideas can be addressed in your right column, though you do not need to address each one with every entry. As well, be sure to be brief, writing key words and abbreviating as you can.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Summary of events, important developments• Charlie’s responses or changes• Important quotes/connections to earlier points in the story• Your personal response or opinion• Connections to other texts progris riport 1 martch 5 1965	Charlie Gordon, 37 years old “I want to be smart” (23).
progris riport 2 martch 6	Taking inkblot test—but he only sees inkblots Mentally challenged

