

2J's Classroom Bill of Rights

Our Rights

A basic good, something all people should have.

We each have the right to be safe at school.

We each have the right to have materials and supplies to learn with.

We each have the right to have our own space in our classroom.

We each have the right to learn new things.

We each have the right to share our ideas and ask questions in our learning.

We each have the right to participate in class activities.

We each have the right to have a place to play and recess time.

Our Responsibilities

Something you must do, an action you are in charge of.

We each have the responsibility to not hurt others with words or actions.

We each have the responsibility to take good care of our materials and put them away.

We each have the responsibility to keep our desks and cubbies neat and organized.

We each have the responsibility to work quietly and not disturb others as we learn and work.

We each have the responsibility to listen to each others' ideas and wait our turns to speak.

We each have the responsibility to stay on task and give our best with all classroom activities.

We each have the responsibility to play safely, follow directions, and listen to playground aides.
