

A Note From 1-B

January 16, 2009

Coming home today:

Please let your child share his or her hard work from the year with you!

- Ghana Journals and Mental Maps!
- Mathematics Student Activity Books from Units 2 & 3!
- Balance and Weighing Journals!

Announcements

- New Guest Reader and Computer Volunteer sign-up sheets have been posted. Please feel come in and sign up!
- Thursdays we have Art. Please send your child dressed to school on Thursdays in clothing that you won't mind a few signs of a messy day coming home on.
- Monday, January 19: No school, Martin Luther King Jr. Day
- Tuesday, January 20: We will be watching the Presidential Inauguration in school. Please talk to your child about this event this weekend.
- Tuesday, January 20: Lunch menu change: Pizza will be the hot lunch option.
- Friday, February 6: Progress Reports sent home
- Wednesday, February 13: Family Open School Night
- Monday, February 16 – Friday, February 20: No School
- We are gladly accepting donations of soft tissues this cold season!

Conversation Starters

- ❖ What is EEKK? What else do you do during Read to Someone?
- ❖ What do you do after the pledge?
- ❖ DO you remember the words to The Star Spangled Banner? God Bless America?
- ❖ What is Mrs. Byrnes job during Read to Someone?
- ❖ What skill do you practice when you read to someone?
- ❖ What is a survey?
- ❖ How can you sort the data you collect?
- ❖ How can you represent that data on paper clearly?

Have a great weekend,
Sarah Byrnes