

What is being modified?

Adverbs may come before, after, or between the words they modify.

Example:

Quietly, she will tiptoe from the stage.

She will quietly tiptoe from the stage.

She will tiptoe quietly from the stage.

What is the adverb quietly modifying?
the verb phrase: "will tiptoe"

What is an adverb?

An adverb is a word that modifies a verb, an adjective, or another adverb.

When an adverb modifies a verb it usually asks the question:

where?

when?

how?

When an adverb modifies an adjective or another adverb it usually asks the question:

how

how to what long?

often?

extent?