

Social Studies Review

Grade Eight

Unit One

Key words to review:

1. History
2. Individual past
3. Collective past
4. Family Tree
5. Historian's Method
6. Primary Sources
7. Secondary Sources
8. Oral History
9. Historic
10. Prehistoric
11. Biography
12. Autobiography
13. Artifacts
14. Migratory fishery
15. Tuberculosis
16. Red Ochre
17. Mamateek
18. Natural Increase
19. Natural Decrease
20. Immigration
21. Migration

22. Push factors

23. Pull factors

Questions:

1. Why is it important to study history?
2. Where can we find evidence of history?
3. What are the steps for the Historian's Method of Research?
4. Briefly describe the following: First Nation's People in NL, Beothuk, Innu, Inuit, Mi'kmaq, Labrador Métis (location, lifestyle, origins)
5. Who was Shanadithit? Why is she important to NL history?
6. What were the reasons for the extinction of the Beothuks?
7. Why did other Aboriginal groups survive but not the Beothuks?
8. Identify the factors which led to the arrival of the following groups to NL. English, Irish, French, Scottish, Chinese, Lebanese.
9. Identify the settlement patterns of groups and family units that developed in and around NL as immigration continued through the 19th century to include the French Shore and the areas populated by the English, Irish, French, and other ethnic groups.
10. Explain why there was internal migration in NL during the 19th century.
11. What factors caused the population of NL to grow in the 19th century?
12. Compare the settlement patterns of NL today with those of the early 20th century.