How to make a hand turkey

By Sam and Julia

Since it's Thanksgiving time we guessed that you might want to make some Thanksgiving crafts.

This is how to make a hand turkey

1. Trace your hand but DO NOT include your wrist.
2. Add feathers from pointer finger to pinkie
  - Put colored craft feathers
  - Or draw your own feathers
3. Add at the bottom of your of your hand where the wrist should be tiny turkey feet
4. Where your thumb is draw a face with a bird's beak
5. Add a gobble under your thumb
6. Color and cut out
7. Voila! A hand turkey. Enjoy!

Book Checkout

by Anushka & Rebecca

Wow! The new book checkout system is here! We interviewed Ms. Derer, our librarian. And here's how the interview went!

S: Do you enjoy using the internet checkout more than the manual writing system?

Ms. Derer: Oh yes, checking out by hand was just a short term solution!

S: Is the new system quicker?

Ms. Derer: It is simpler but around the same speed. It is also more user friendly.

S: When did the system start working?

Ms. Derer: It was up and running October 24th!

S: Is it easier than the last system you used?

Ms. Derer: It is easier than the old system "Libraryworld"

Thanks to Destiny, our new system, we can checkout books easily!

Where's Kirby?

By: Maggie

Each time I go away, Ms. Carter is looking for me. I bet you can find me. If you can't find out, use an atlas. An atlas is a book with maps. Good luck finding me.

Your Friend
Kirby

He's in Africa.

He's on an island.

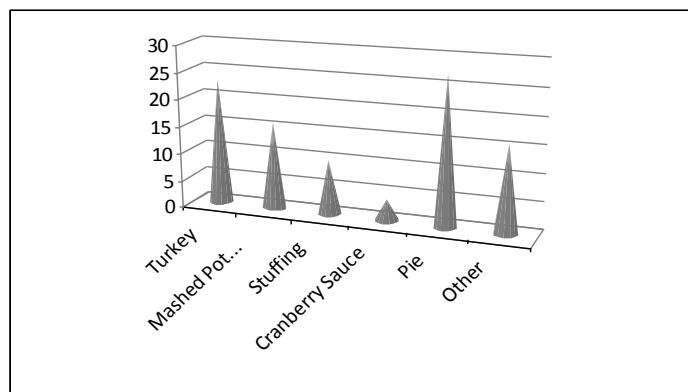

There are a lot of rainforests there.

It's where a ring tail lemur lives.

Favorite Thanksgiving Foods

By Annabella & Thalia

What's your favorite Thanksgiving food? We surveyed these classes: Mrs. Gil, Mr. Strauss, Mrs. Fiore, and Mrs. Minelli. Here are the results:

The most popular food was pie. What is yours?

New First Graders

By Corinne & Rebecca

We wanted to see what the first graders thought of Campbell School, full day, recess, lunch, and the bus ride, so we asked Mrs. Sefranka's class what they thought about first grade!

These are the things they liked the best. They thought first grade was really cool and fun! Most of all, they liked the bus because all of their friends are on it. They also like reading, art class – thanks Ms. McKeown – and lunch, but most of all, they like no naps!

Thank you, Ms. Sefranka's first grade class!

Student Council Updates!

Coat Drive: Nov. 16 – Dec. 7

Please bring in clean, gently used or new coats

Toy Drive: Dec. 1 – Dec. 15

Please bring in new toys.

Wrap the toy and put on a label that tells what is in the box, whether it's for a boy or girl and the recommended age of the child.

No battery operated toys.

Thanks!

Metuchen Cheerleaders

Congratulations to the Metuchen Po Warner Cheerleaders! Junior Pee Wee level and the Midget Level are going to the National Competition in Florida! Good luck – more details in the December edition.

Elections

By Mattison

The votes are in! We have picked our Student Council President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer. But it was a long process. First we had a run-off and picked the top six people from each group. Then those people hung up posters. After that, they gave awesome speeches to the 3rd and 4th grades. Lastly, we voted and the votes have been counted. The winners are:

President: Christina DiStaso
 Vice President: Ben Cunningham
 Secretary: Aran Subramanian
 Treasurer: Thomas Cordes

What's Your Favorite Macy's Balloon?

By Carly & Emma

There are a lot of awesome, cool balloons in the Macy's parade! We couldn't decide which balloon was the best, so we decided to tell you about some of them. Be sure to see music and singing on the corner of 145st Street in New York. Fun fact: they used to blow the balloons up with their mouths!

There will be a lot of new balloons this Thanksgiving! So would you like to learn a little about them? Well, there will be Snoopy, Humpty-Dumpty, and lots more. We can't tell you all of them, because then it couldn't be a surprise! Enjoy the Macy's Thanksgiving parade.

Madlibs

By Jordan and Catherine

Thanksgiving is so (adjective)! I (verb) eating (noun) with gravy. I also (verb) (noun) and (noun). But my favorite is (noun) pie for dessert. What I (verb) about (holiday) is seeing my (family member). She is the (adjective ending in est) ever. Other than her, (holiday) is pretty good!
