

Walden assignment:

Monday May 9 and Tuesday May 10

- 1) Write out a passage from the assigned reading which you particularly liked. That's it. You do not have to write anything else except the quoted passage.

- 2) Write out a passage from the assigned reading which offers an example of one of Thoreau's primary figurative tendencies. After you write out the passage. Identify the figurative tendency and briefly write why Thoreau uses it.

- 3) Write out a passage from the assigned reading which offers an example of one of Thoreau's primary rhetorical tendencies. After you write out the passage. Identify the rhetorical tendency and briefly write why Thoreau uses it.

Wednesday May 11, Thursday May 12, and Friday May 13

- 1) Write out a passage from the assigned reading which you found particularly paradoxical, cryptic or difficult to understand. Free write over this passage. Let your writing take you into discovery and better understanding of the passage.

- 2) Write out a passage from the assigned reading which you particularly liked. That's it. You do not have to write anything else except the quoted passage.

Monday May 16

Free write about Walden and the experience of reading it