Each student must return this signed permission form before being permitted to participate on the field trip. If both parents have custody, they both must sign. If one parent is out of town or otherwise unavailable, this fact should be noted on the form. If only one parent has custody, permission must be obtained from this parent with acknowledgment that this parent is sole custodian of the child. If there are 2 guardians, permission must be obtained as indicated above for two parents. If there is no parent and only one guardian, permission must be obtained from the sole guardian with the acknowledgment that he/she is the sole guardian.
