

Bob Saves The Day

Once there was the Killer Hand. No one in Dudville made contact with him. He destroyed everything in his path. He had an assistant named Rodger the Red Bird. The Mayor of Dudville, Bob the Drummer, plays a magical tune to keep the Killer Hand away.

One day, Rodger the Red Bird pecked Bob the Drummer's head. Bob forgot how to play the tune. Now the Killer Hand can enter the city. The Killer Hand tried to take over Dudville.

Suddenly, Superman appeared out of Bob the Drummer's watch!

“Woah! What are you doing here?” says Bob.

Superman uses his super watch to fend off the Killer Hand. Finally, Bob remembered the tune and the Killer Hand never returned to Dudville again.
