

Mr. Jolly Rancher's First Field Trip

One autumn day, a jolly rancher named Mr. Jolly Rancher, went on a field trip. He got on the bus and was talking to his friends and having a great time. But all of a sudden the bus hit a bump and Mr. Jolly Rancher fell out of the window. He was crushed. With the last of Mr. Jolly Rancher's strength, he saw Dr. Spoon walking down the street wearing a necklace with nine beads. Dr. Spoon fixes up Mr. Jolly Rancher, and he is back to new again. They are so happy they start singing and dancing on top of a picture frame! What a great day.
