

The Adventures of Jolly Rancher and Friends

Once upon a time, a ninja was riding a unicorn while eating Jolly Rancher. Leprechaun threw a Frisbee at the ninja. At first it missed, so a bear in a bag threw it back. The leprechaun helped the bear out of his bag. Then the bear tackled the ninja. Then Jolly Rancher was saved!

The bear took a picture of Jolly Rancher with all of his friends for his birthday. So, he put it in a picture frame and gave it to the bear for his birthday. Jolly Rancher did not like the picture so he gave it back to the bear. The next day the bear took them to the beach to get another picture.

At the beach, a volcano erupted. Everyone ran away from the beach as far as they could. A cat ran away and up a tree, but got stuck at the top. A dog tried to help the cat down from the tree, but he got stuck too. The volcano set the tree on fire so the cat and dog began to get nervous. What if they couldn't get down in time?

Jolly Rancher saw the cat and dog in trouble. At first he thought he should get help from a professional, but he decided to help them himself. Jolly Rancher saved the cat and dog! The cat and dog were so thankful that Jolly Rancher helped them down before it was too late. At the beach, they all took another picture together and Jolly Rancher liked this one better.
