

The Big Apple

Two best friends, a lion named Fred and a ram named Joey always wanted to go to the Big Apple, New York City. But, they never had a way to get there. One day they found a magical pencil and notepad. They wrote "New York" in it and, "BOOM!" they were suddenly there! Fred and Joey were having an awesome day until they realized the humans weren't comfortable with a lion and ram wandering the streets. So, they decided it was time to go home. But Joey misplaced the notepad! They searched everywhere but couldn't find it. Luckily, Fred found a magical gold bell. He rung it, and "BOOM!" they were back home! They stayed best friends, and lived happily ever after.
