

Tea and prayers at St. Patrick School

The eighth-graders at St. Patrick School in Kennett Square came together for a good cause recently. They worked as a class to create more than 150 breakfast bags for the St. Agnes Day Room in West Chester.

The bags were filled with breakfast treats including oatmeal, granola bars, oranges and tea bags and prayers.