

St. Patrick Students Make Breakfast Bags

The 8th graders at St. Patrick School in Kennett Square came together recently for a good cause. They worked as a class to create over 150 breakfast bags for the St. Agnes Day Room in West Chester. The bags were filled with all sorts of breakfast goodies including oatmeal, granola bars, an orange, a bag of tea, and a prayer. We hope that these bags will help many people in need.