

St. Patrick's students get visit from Shauna McNeely

On Thursday, Nov. 4, first class Petty Officer Shauna McNeely came in to talk to the Middle School students of St. Patrick School, Kennett Square. She came in to thank the students for the care packages, letters, and prayers the Middle School sent her and her fellow Navy members for Christmas of 2009.

Petty Officer McNeely's sisters, Alexandra and Gabrielle, are members of the Class of 2011 at Saint Patrick School. In January 2011, St. Patrick Middle School students will assemble more care packages, letters and, of course, more prayers to send them. Petty Officer McNeely has been in the Navy for almost 9 years, and has been deployed at least four times. She came to school at the end of her leave and she is stationed in Virginia.

"We are very thankful that she serves our country, and we are happy that she found time to come visit us and answer our many questions," said Therese Waters, principal at St. Pat's.

