

@ YOUR BORCHARDT LIBRARY

IMPORTANT! Research and Homework Help is Here!

Frisco ISD elementary students now have access to six databases and the school library catalog to help with research and homework. Databases are electronic collections of age-appropriate information organized for more effective searching.

Ebsco:

Searchasaurus: access to magazines, dictionary, general encyclopedia, animal encyclopedia, and pictures archive

EBSCOhost Web: encyclopedias magazines, and newspapers, teacher resources (ERIC and Professional Library)

<http://search.epnet.com>

Home Access: username = borchardt
Password = heart

World Book Online- online version of the World Book Encyclopedia

<http://www.worldbookonline.com/wb/Home>

Home Access: username = frisco
Password = schools

Encyclopedia Britannica- on-line version

<http://www.britannica.com/memberlogin>

Home Access: username = friscoisd
Password = frisco

AccuWeather Premium Weather Service- weather around the world

<http://premium.accuweather.com>

Home Access: username=friscoisd
password=frisco

AP Multimedia- photo archives from the Associated Press

<http://ap.accuweather.com>

Home Access: username=friscoisd
password=frisco

Borchardt Library Catalog

<http://207.235.152.98/ipac20/ipac.jsp?profile=109#focus>

Home Access: Student ID number

Or...OPAC can be accessed from the Frisco ISD website/schools & Programs/Borchardt

TeachingBooks.net: information about authors and literature

<http://www.TeachingBooks.net/home>

Home Access: Password = FriscoTX

For more information about databases and effective database searches, access the following website:

<http://www.library.arizona.edu/rio/db2.html>

These data bases are Licensed for use by Frisco ISD students and staff only.

