Battle of the Bluebonnets

Welcome to the Battle of the Bluebonnets! These Bluebonnet authors and their books are in the spotlight and YOU get to be the judge! To get started, read two of the Bluebonnet books listed . Eliminate the one you like the least by crossing through its square with an X. After you read the third title, decide which book you would like to eliminate out of the two not crossed out. Then eliminate one of those by marking an X again on one of the boxes. Continue in this way until you have read five books or more to vote. Of course, you are welcome and encouraged to read even more than 5. When your reading is finished, the book that is not crossed out will be your choice for you Bluebonnet winner. That is the book that you will probably want to vote for. Use your “Battle of the Bluebonnets” list when you vote at the Bluebonnet Voting in January.
