

Writing Your Own AR Test
Guidelines

1. All AR tests must be typed and include 4 answer choices.
2. Correct answer must be indicated.
3. Proper Heading:
  - Student Name
  - Date
  - Title of Book (underlined)
  - Author
  - Number of Pages
  - Genre
  - AR Points you are requesting
4. Books valued at under 10 points must have 10 questions.
5. Books valued at over 10 points must have 20 questions.
6. Questions must give me a sense of the story. They must include higher-level questions beyond basic characters and setting. They must include events that happen throughout the book.
7. Ms. Van Tassell reserves the right to ask you to write more questions to determine value for book or to show your understanding of the book. Ms. V. will make the final determination for points earned and return the test to your Literature teacher with points earned indicated at the top.
8. AR tests should be put in Ms. V.'s box, either in the Middle School hallway or the office.
9. If an AR test exists for the book, you must attempt it and attach your result sheet to the test.

