

Getting to Know Your Neighbor

Get to know the person directly across from you by interviewing them with the following questions. Please take notes as you will be typing a short story on what you have learned from your neighbor.

1. Personal information
 - a. What is your name?
 - b. Where do you live?
 - c. How many brothers and sisters do you have?
2. If you could be an animal, what animal would you be?
 - a. Name of animal
 - b. Why would you like to be this animal?
 - c. What characteristics do you have that might be similar to this animal?
3. What is something unique about you?
4. What is something you can do very well?
5. What kind of career would you like to have some day?
 - a. Why?
6. Ask your neighbor to finish these two sentences.
 - a. I will never _____.
 - b. I will always _____.
7. If you found $100 in the hallway at school, what would you do?
8. Come up with three questions of your own to ask your neighbor.

- ✓ After interviewing your neighbor, you will type a one page, double spaced story about your neighbor.
- ✓ You need to come up with a title for your story.
- ✓ Insert a small clipart of the animal they would like to be.
- ✓ Please proof read and correct your spelling, punctuation, and grammar.
- ✓ Make sure you have included your header information on your story.
- ✓ When you have completed your story, let your neighbor read it and have them sign the bottom of your story and hand in.
