

Personal Value Assessment-from Boomers, Xers, and Other Strangers
check the box with answer you most agree, total your score by column on last page

1. Which would best describe your beliefs about family relationships?	Families should stay together at all costs.	If family relationships aren't working for you, get out of the relationship.	You can't count on families staying together-whoever is close to you becomes family.	Keep families together-but if not possible, accept whatever family you have	Other:
2. Which best describes your beliefs about Marriage?	Marriage commitments are forever.	Marriages are for as long as they are fulfilling and meet each other's needs.	Marriage is optional for those living together and commitment levels are uncertain.	Marriage commitment is important, but if divorce is necessary, don't judge.	Other:
3. Which best describes your beliefs about sex?	Sex is for married partners only.	Sex outside of marriage is somewhat acceptable.	Sex outside of marriage is common, but dangerous. Use caution.	Abstinence until marriage is good option-but at least practice safe sex.	Other:
4. Which best describes your attitudes toward your parents when you were a teenager?	Respected and obeyed them.	Thought I knew more so I challenged their authority and did my own thing.	Felt abandoned by them, so I did what was best for me and looked for other significant relationships.	Respected them and wanted their advice for my life.	Other:
5. How do you typically respond to people with a background or lifestyle vastly different from yours?	Uncomfortable being around them, try to avoid them.	Try to be sensitive to their differences, but prefer to be separate and with people like me.	Treat them in politically correct ways-enjoy building relationships with them.	Hardly notice the differences-enjoy the differences-don't judge.	Other:
6. If you received an unexpected bonus of $1,000, what would you most likely do with it?	Save it for a rainy day.	Spend it on something fun and exciting now.	Pay bills with it.	Save some and spend some on clothes, music, a car, etc.	Other:
7. In addition to making a living, which factor do you find most motivating in your work?	Financial gain and security	Self-fulfillment and meaning	Meeting financial needs without too many demands on personal time.	Having fun while doing helpful, meaningful work.	Other:
8. When it comes to longevity in careers, which best describes your expectation or preference?	Stick with career-few career changes.	Willing to change careers to find better or more meaningful job.	Expect to change careers several times.	Looking for a career. May need to change careers to find the best one for me.	Other:
9. Which best describes your top priority in your job?	Loyalty to the company.	Loyalty to my own personal needs.	Loyalty to my family's needs and my personal beliefs.	Loyalty to my need to do something I enjoy.	Other:

Personal Value Assessment-from Boomers, Xers, and Other Strangers
check the box with answer you most agree. total your score by column on last page

10. Which best describes your preferred work style/environment?	Team work, self-sacrifice for the company goals	Doing it my way: individualistic, competitive.	Fulfill the basic requirements of the job.	Networking: working in cooperation with others, sharing knowledge and ideas.	Other:
11. Which style of clothing would you consider to be appropriate for an office work environment?	Sport coats and ties; dresses.	Nice casual	Comfortable casual; jeans and T-shirts	Anything comfortable, from jeans to dressy.	Other:
12. Which of the following best describes your relationship to the current high-tech society?	Seems good, but I find it somewhat intimidating.	Important part of our current lifestyle, both at home and work. But it's a challenge to learn.	Important to daily life, both for work and entertainment. Feel comfortable with the technology.	Hard to imagine life without it. Use if for entertainment, and to connect with people on the Internet.	Other:
13. Which best describes your feelings about the presence of absolutes in our lives?	There are many things in life that are definitely right and wrong.	In some cases there are absolutes, but you have to do what's best for you.	Everything is relative-no real absolutes.	I have my beliefs about what is right and wrong, others are welcome to their own beliefs.	Other:
14. Which best describes your attitude toward rules and traditions?	Rules/traditions are good and should be followed.	They should be challenged, and irrelevant ones should be ignored or changed.	Tell me the rational behind them and I will decide whether to follow them.	I choose the rules that make sense to me, and you may follow different rules.	Other:
15. Which best describes your feelings about the U.S.'s role in the wars of your lifetime (those we sent troops to)?	Patriotism-the U.S. has played an important part in helping the world.	Protesting-if there is no clear and valid reason for being involved.	Uninvolved-it's something we see on TV, but nothing seems to get resolved.	Unaware/indifferent-not sure what is going on, but generally opposed to the concept of war.	Other:
16. Which best describes how you related to the government?	Patriotic/supportive.	Skeptical/distrustful.	Prefer local to national government.	Waiting to see how the government will meet my needs.	Other:
17. Which best describes your musical preferences?	Swing, big band jazz.	Rock 'n' Roll.	Alternative/rap/heavy metal.	Most kinds of music/a variety.	Other:
18. During your teens, which type of male hairstyle did you prefer?	Short and neat.	Longer/styled.	Short-long combos, bizarre haircuts.	Short and neat or unique haircuts, including shaved, bleached and spiked.	Other:

02/09/2008

Personal Value Assessment-from Boomers, Xers, and Other Strangers
check the box with answer you most agree, total your score by column on last page

19. Which best describes your view of suicide.	An unthinkable reaction to problems.	A tragic and desperate response to life.	A reasonable choice/alternative to a difficult life.	A sad, but understandable reaction to a hard life situation.	Other:
Total the number of responses in each column.	Typical Seasoned Mature Responses	Typical Boomer Responses	Typical Generation X Responses	Typical Millennial Responses	Your Own Unique Responses